

WriteUp for Phase-1 Project

LOCKME PROJECT

This project consists of an application for business requirement. The aim is to digitize the products of company Lockers Pvt. Ltd and chose LockedMe.com as the first project to start with. It is a prototype of the application and is presented to the relevant stakeholders for the budget approval. Main tasks performed in the project are:

- 1) The project consists of number and duration of sprints required.
- 2) Git and Github accounts are set to share the enhancement of prototype.
- 2) Java is used to write the code.
- 3) Different operations are used to meet the business requirements.
 - a) Option to add a user specified file to the application.
 - b) Option to delete a user specified file from the application.
 - c) Option to share a user specified file from the application.
 - d) Navigation option to close the current execution and return to the main context.
 - e) Option to close the application.

These are main operation performed in the project